Trevor Roberts is a cub reporter in a small town in eastern England during the 1950s whose big break as a journalist comes when he interviews a World War I Navy veteran about his famous pet tortoise. Foreman's book is based on the true story of Henry Friston, who was shipped off to Gallipoli as a gunner on the battleship HMS Implacable. Henry's detailed narrative, which unfolds over days of interviews, and pages from his diary recount desperate naval battles, the hazardous landing of ...
