Krista Noorman is the sort of author that proves to us readers that self publishing is a chosen path and not the last resort. The Truth About Drew is one of those heart warming stories that I loved from the very first line. The characters were well written and relatable.

The Truth About Drew by Krista Noorman - Goodreads

". The Truth About Drew by Krista Noorman is one of the best reading surprises I have had in a long while. With its obvious religious undertones, Noorman has included the popular genre of the paranormal in this story of hope and encouragement for young readers. The language is perfectly in tune with contemporary teenage readers.

The Truth About Drew by Krista Noorman, Paperback | Barnes ...

I enjoyed this book so much. While aimed at a YA audience (the protagonist is a 14-year-old girl), it has a story that will hook readers of all ages. To be fair, I did figure out the truth about Drew before it was revealed, but knowing the truth will not dim a reader's interest in finding out what happens after the truth is known.
