News > London 'Mind the Gap': Meet the voices behind London's iconic Tube announcements 'I also do the voice of Southern Rail, so am probably not very popular at the moment'

In The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind, Russell Meares presents a fascinating inquiry into the origin of mind. He proposes that the way in which mind, or self, evolved, may resemble the way it emerges in childhood play and that a poetic, analogical style of thought is a biological necessity, essential to bringing to fruition the achievement of the human mind.

Above all, the theme which is emphasised again and again, is the singers mental attitude; hence, 'The Voice of the Mind'. The training for singers, he argues, is for the right mental messages to be sent to the vocal machinery and with repetition and time, the physical actions of the vocal mechanism will become second nature.
