I am new to the thirty something age range among other things and can't help but feel like this must be some sort of cruel joke! I have been a mother for more than 6 years now (WHAT?!) to that handsome stud muffin of a kid in the white sun glasses. His name is Kolin, with a K, and oh my has he taught me so much about life and love.

About - This Is Thirty Something

Thirtysomething is feeling like an angsty teenager from time to time and wondering if life ever stops feeling like middle school. It is trying not to laugh when your kid says "fuck" instead of "truck" in the middle of the department store, and tacking on a "that's what she said" more often than appropriate.
