NQLSP4 - CHAMBERS KENYON

Trust Me On This is a screwball romantic comedy about mixed identities, a December/May (secondary) romance and an underlying message about marriage vs. career. Surprisingly, this one was just "meh" for me. Most of Crusie's books make their way to my keeper shelf. I jumped on Crusie's bandwagon a few years ago after discovering her sharp wit and wicked sense of humor.

Trust Me on This by Jennifer Crusie - Fantastic Fiction

"Trust Me on This" is another Crusie classic with an independent, sassy heroine and a likeable charismatic hero. Crusie is so good at witty repartee, humor and making her characters come alive. I have always loved that her female characters are eminently loveable even though they are not the prototypical romance novel gorgeous, skinny, Barbie types.
